

Administrative board

The director directs the institution with the help of the deputy director, who is a senior administrator, the directors of music and of choreographic studies and the director of research. He is also assisted by the academic and research committees.

ROLE

The administrative board takes the management decisions of the institution in the following areas:

- institutional strategy and academic regulations
- the budget and its modifications
- the accounts and the affectation of the financial result at the end of each financial year
- the general framework of the remuneration of the staff under contract
- projects to purchase or rent premises; projects to sell or lease premises
- donations and legacies
- legal actions and transactions
- financial commitments, modification to the level of commitment, withdrawal from commitments; the creation of affiliates
- concessions
- pricing strategy
- house rules
- annual report

The administrative board is convened by the chairman at least once every semester. The chairman is nominated for term of office of three years by a decree which is drawn up in accordance with the recommendations of a report submitted by the minister in charge of culture. The nomination can be renewed for a further term or terms.

The chairman/chairwoman and members of the administrative board receive no remuneration for their services.
