CoPeCo

Masters in Contemporary Performance & Composition

The CoPeCo master's programme is organised by four higher musical institutions in four different European countries

- Muusika- ja Teatriakadeemia – Estonian Academy of Music and Theatre (Estonia)
- Hochschule für Musik und Theater Hamburg – Hamburg University of Music and Theatre (Germany)
- Kungliga Musikhögskolan i Stockholm – Royal College of Music in Stockholm (Sweden)
- Conservatoire National Supérieur Musique et Danse de Lyon – CNSMD de Lyon (France)

CoPeCo is an European itinerant master's programme for musicians who wish to explore a new approach of their artistic practice by experiencing new music and new technologies, improvisation, and collaboration with other art forms. CoPeCo is a platform for innovative and collaborative artistic research based on the crossing of skills and cultures.

Within a collective context gathering young artists, the CoPeCo programme offers its students the possibility to focus on their individual projects, enriched by the inputs and resources of the four academic partners involved in the programme:

The CoPeCo joint master's programme is part of the Lyon CNSMD's 2nd cycle programmes.
